

WANT TO SPICE UP YOUR LIFE?

We are looking for a Project Manager for Tech Transfer and Supply Chain (m/f/x) with a background in pharma/medical devices

Location: Porto/Heidenheim an der Brenz/Berlin or remote (Portugal/Germany)

Starting: at the next possible date

ABOUT THE FORCE:

THE FORCE builds companies for companies in the healthcare and pharmaceutical sector.

We encourage work in a flexible surrounding and as a diverse group when it comes to gender, nationality, religion, and ways of working. This unique culture is aimed to integrate employees and partners seamlessly into one organization.

Likewise, this organization shall easily adapt to customer organizations. Our unique way of operation will release THE FORCE to solve customer problems in a fast, effective, and efficient manner.

In all of this, people are and will be at the center of our attention, and the most valuable asset we have: People are our strength. They make us THE FORCE.

DEVELOP ACCORDING TO YOUR OWN TASTE:

Do you see yourself as a talent whose multi-faceted personality is not fully utilized? Your current area of responsibility restricts you, and you would like to use your skills in a multidisciplinary way? Do you simply want to independently implement an exciting project – or several of them? Then THE FORCE is the right place for you.

HOW YOU SPICE UP OUR LIFE:

- ✚ Your project management skills are something that melts in the mouth.
- ✚ With your excellent communication skills, you not only make yourself palatable to us, but also act confidently when dealing with customers and colleagues.
- ✚ You refine every project through effective management of internal and external team members and other parties.
- ✚ You like to choose the path to your goal yourself and savor the combination of self-determined and structured work.
- ✚ With varied and flexible activities, you can fully unfold your potential and quickly adapt to new requirements.

THAT TASTES OF MORE:

- ✚ You have a scientific and/or business background and have already gotten a taste of practical experience.
- ✚ Words like "tech transfer" and "(global) supply chain" are not exotic to you, but have become part of your everyday language, and you enjoy juggling projects in this area.
- ✚ Your expertise is peppered with knowledge in the areas of pharmaceutical production, laboratory, supply chain, contract manufacturing, or regulatory affairs.
- ✚ Commercial issues, trouble-shooting, or difficult decisions don't spoil your broth either, and you're not afraid of tough negotiations with a supplier or customer.

YOU'VE ACQUIRED A TASTE FOR EVERYTHING MENTIONED ABOVE?

If you recognize yourself in these points and would like to put your skills to full use, then send your application directly via our application form to Christian Stenske.

We offer you a steppingstone into a global working environment with attractive conditions. Don't miss the chance for a new flavor in your life – we are looking forward to you and your ideas!

If you're applying for Portugal, please note that we require all application documents in English.
